Derek is a senior partner in Keller Rohrbach's nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group and a member of the firm's Executive Committee.

Derek's passion for holding large corporations accountable for wrongdoing has helped recover billions of dollars for consumers, retirees, governments and institutions. He has served in leadership roles in major complex cases across the country. Currently, he is co-lead counsel in In re Facebook, Inc. Consumer Privacy User Profile Litigation, the MDL litigation against Facebook stemming from the Facebook Cambridge Analytica scandal.

Derek also serves as lead counsel for the Wells Fargo unauthorized account consumer class action. In this case, Derek and the Keller Rohrbach team achieved a $142 million settlement requiring the bank to refund all improper fees and provide first-of-its kind credit damage reimbursement, among other relief, to Wells Fargo customers.

In addition to his class action work, Derek helps manage the Keller Rohrbach team representing state and local government entities in a number of matters involving significant public health crises. For example, Derek leads the Keller Rohrbach team litigating government cases against opioid manufacturers and distributors in In re National Prescription Opiate Litigation. In the Opioid MDL, Derek serves on the Expert and Law & Briefing Committees, and directs the litigation against a major generic opioid manufacturer. He also represents school districts and counties in litigation against the e-cigarette company, JUUL, for targeting and addicting youth. These cases are quintessential examples of the type of litigation Derek and the Keller Rohrbach team fervently pursue: corporate fraud and malfeasance causing serious harm to the public.

Some of Derek's other notable cases include mortgage-backed securities cases on behalf of the Federal Home Loan Banks of Chicago, Indianapolis and Boston; ERISA class cases on behalf of employees whose retirement savings were decimated by corporate fraud and abuse on the part of Enron, WorldCom, Countrywide, and Washington Mutual, among others. He has also litigated fraud, RICO, and antitrust cases against drug manufacturers, pharmacy benefit managers, and insurance companies for conspiring to drive up the cost of life-saving medications such as insulin.

Many of Derek's cases have required coordinating with state and federal agencies involved in litigation that parallels cases pursued by Keller Rohrbach, including state attorneys general, the Department of Justice, and the Department of Labor. In addition, Derek has extensive experience negotiating complex, multi-party settlements, and coordinating with the many parties and counsel necessary to accomplish this. He is also frequently asked to speak at national conferences about class actions, public health litigation, ERISA, and other complex litigation topics.

Before joining Keller Rohrbach, Derek served as a law clerk for the Honorable Michael R. Hogan, U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon. He was also employed as a trial attorney in the Employment Litigation Section of the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C.

Emma's fierce intelligence and attention to detail allows her to delve into the legal intricacies of every case. Emma brings great enthusiasm to Keller Rohrback's nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group—a practice for which she is well suited, as each case is unique and intellectually demanding.

Having aspired to be an attorney since childhood, Emma was initially drawn to litigation when she took a civil procedure course in law school and learned just how complex and rule-intensive litigation is. In addition, Emma sees complex litigation as an avenue with which to hold large corporations accountable, which connects to her personal dedication to equity.

In 2020, Emma graduated magna cum laude with her J.D. from Seattle University School of Law, where she served as Editor-in-Chief of the Seattle University Law Review, on the Moot Court Board, and as a research assistant to her civil procedure professor. During law school, she also externed for Judge John C. Coughenour of the Western District of Washington.

Drawn to the firm's culture of collaboration and commitment to social justice, Emma first worked at Keller Rohrback as a summer associate in 2018 and 2019, eventually returning to the firm full-time as an associate attorney in 2020. She is excited to rejoin the team working on In re: Facebook, Inc. Consumer Privacy User Profile Litigation, which the firm filed when Emma was a 1L summer associate.

In her spare time, Emma enjoys skiing, traveling, and spending time with her dog, Winter.
